SCHOOL NEWS

Boundary Changes – From Ms. Beach

With the opening of Magnolia Elementary in the fall of 2018, our school boundaries might change. Information can be found on the Magnolia Elementary Boundary Planning Page: Boundaries This page will continue to be updated throughout the process. All questions and feedback can be sent to: growthboundaries@seattleschools.org. Although, none of the scenarios currently mentions John Hay, meetings are currently happening in which that might change.

I have invited the Director of Enrollment Planning, Ashley Davies, and the Enrollment Planning Project Specialist, E.R. Alvarez to come and share information on possible changes, timelines and procedures involved in this process and how it will affect John Hay Elementary. They are interested in hearing families and using this information as they work with communities to create boundary drafts to present to the board for approval. Thursday, April 6th @ 5:30 PM in the JH library.

I am gathering all of the information I can to compile questions, comments, or suggestions from you before the meeting so that I can set the format for the meeting according to the community needs. My email is trbeach@seattleschools.org

John Hay All-School Science Fair 2017

All right, all of you science-loving Jaguars, it's time to get ready for the John Hay Science Fair. Sign up between now and April 28th to participate. All students are eligible to enter a project. You can work individually or co-create a project with another student in the same grade-level. Projects will be on display June 1st, 6:30-8:00pm, for the entire John Hay community to enjoy. Awards will be presented that evening. You can get your Science Fair Information packet from your classroom teacher or on the John Hay Blog <https://www.johnhaypartners.org/blogs/>

Also, the Science Fair team is in need of about 8-10 volunteers to help on the day of the Science Fair. Between 2:30 and 3:30 we will need help with:

*setting up tables

*covering tables with paper

*displaying science projects

If you can spare an hour to help, please contact Julia Landa (4th grade teacher) at jlanda@seattleschools.org
